

FAITH & BUSINESS – 9:00-12:00 (online – Cantonese)

Stewardship: Implications for People Management

- * Prof. ChungMing Lau, former Professor & Head of Management, CUHK Business School
- * Dr. Natalie Man Se Chan, Director of Bethel Ray Bakke Centre for Urban Transformation

Stewardship: Biblical Perspectives of Wealth Creation

- * Dr. Ricky Szeto, CEO & Executive Director of Hung Fook Tong Group Holdings Ltd.
- * Mrs. Patricia Yuen, Executive Director of EGL Tours

Our economy is struggling. On March 26, Hong Kong Professional & Educational Services Ltd hosted a hybrid seminar featuring two local CEOs Mrs. Patricia Yuen of EGL Tours and Dr. Ricky Szeto of Hung Fook Tong Group who shared their personal “朝不保夕經歷神” journeys of experiencing God in difficult times in the last three years since the pandemic began.

In this webinar, they will be joined by Dr. Chung Ming Lau, a senior Business academic, and Dr. Natalie Chan, a theologian who spent many years in the corporate world, to explore what are some unchanging principles and core values that Christian business people should hold on to in these difficult times that will enable them to survive and thrive.

Prof. Chung-Ming Lau was former professor and head of Management at the Chinese University of Hong Kong Business School. He was the founding President of the Asia Academy of Management. He is a member of EFCC Yan Fook Ma On Shan Church and currently serves as the Chairman of Christian Communications Ltd. Besides his academic publications in the management field, he has also authored several church-related books, including Church Management Make Sense, Courage to Lead, and Six Leadership Essentials.

Dr. Natalie Man Se Chan is Director of Bethel Ray Bakke Centre for Urban Transformation (BRBC), Professor in Urban Ministry and Program Director for two doctoral programs and one master program at Bethel Bible Seminary. BRBC has published research about churches in Hong Kong including recent titles such as “The Church and Dechurching”, “Church Ministry and Online service during the Pandemic”, “New Church Expression – rethinking the essence of the Church in turbulent times” and “The Spiritual State of Christians in Hong Kong”. BRBC has also just published a new book Transforming Theology in Action – 12 Praxis in City Lives, edited by Natalie.

Dr. Ricky Szeto Wing-fu has joined Hung Fook Tong Group Holdings Limited (Stock Code 1446) since 1999 and is currently the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director of the group.

Dr. Szeto serves at various public service committees, including the Committee on Hong Kong Tourism Board, Social Welfare Advisory Committee, Industry Training Advisory Committee, and Advisory Committee on the Enhancing Self-Reliance Through District Partnership Programme. Dr. Szeto is also director of Alliance Bible Seminary, Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Hong Kong Society for Rehabilitation, and chairman of Hong Kong Professional & Educational Services. He is former Program Director of Bachelor of Business Administration and Master of Marketing at Hong Kong Shue Yan University and currently Professor of Practice in Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Mrs. Patricia Yuen is currently Executive Director of EGL Tours which has been listed in HKEX since 2014. Pat has extensive knowledge and experience in the tourism industry. She is also a deaconess at Tsung Tsin Mission of HK Whampoa Church.